Brochure and free Personal Will Profile

Interested in leaving a bequest? Need more information? Guide Dogs Victoria has developed a new information brochure, outlining what is involved in making a charitable gift in your Will. The brochure also includes a free personal Will profile – a confidential document that is yours to keep and can assist you in preparing your Will.

The Williams' use their Will Power

Angela Williams has been a volunteer for Guide Dogs Victoria for nine years now, nurturing puppies in the breeding centre, assisting with administrative work in the office and even attending regional functions with our Public Education Officer.

Angela's mother-in-law was very excited when Angela started her volunteer work. "I used to ring her every week to tell her what I had been doing. She was so impressed that she decided to leave a bequest to Guide Dog Victoria in her Will. So when it came time for my husband Gary and I to write our Wills, it was an easy decision for us to leave a bequest too" says Angela.

"Being involved with Guide Dogs Victoria has been a wonderful experience, everyone is so friendly and as a volunteer I really feel like a part of the team. In leaving a bequest to Guide Dogs Victoria we are supporting our favourite services; Breeding and Children's Mobility. I see some of the kids that come here and marvel at the way they get around. I have known people with vision impairment my whole life and truly admire the work that Guide Dogs Victoria does."

.....

When Angela and Gary decided to leave a bequest to Guide Dogs Victoria they automatically became members of the Otus Fellowship, our supporter's group named after legendary stud dog Otus. "We've been to some of the Otus Fellowship Luncheons and really enjoyed it. It's great being around people who share our passion for Guide Dogs Victoria" says Angela.

Guide Dogs Victoria only receives around 7% Government funding, none of which is provided to cover the costs of breeding, raising and training Guide Dogs. By leaving a gift or legacy to Guide Dogs Victoria in your Will, you can really make a difference. Your gift can help us continue to help many more vision impaired Victorians improve their quality of life and independence.

Have you left a bequest in your Will to Guide Dogs Victoria? Please let us know so we can say thank you. Your confidentiality will be respected. ●●
